Hard Bargain Farm Amphitheater

2001 Bryan Point Road, Accokeek, MD

Sponsored by the Alice Ferguson Foundation ~Environmental Education on the Potomac~

Wayward Street Players

July 30, 2011—Saturday, 8 p.m.

The “Wayward Street Players” (with an emphasis on Wayward) are a very eclectic group of musicians who perform a humorous mix of “American Riverboat Music” including impersonations of: Louis Armstrong, Elvis Presley, Leon Redbone, The Ink Spots, Johnny Cash, The Mills Brothers and many other innovative performers.

Douglas Everton (Banjo, Guitar and Vocals), has developed a unique performing art. He not only imitates the original performers, but imitates the instruments as well.

Tom Layton (Wizard of the Washboard), rounds out the rhythm section with a fully loaded washboard. Watch out! He plays with knives.

Wes Butts (Washtub Bassist Extraordinaire) masterfully plays the bass notes with surprising accuracy.

Adults--$12;
AFF Members/Students--$10;
Kids under twelve--$5
